

Professor of Education,

..... DEYOE, George Percy, 1901- Farm reared in northern Iowa. Iowa State College, B.S., 1923; University of Chicago, M.A., 1928; Columbia University, Ph.D., 1934. ~~XXXX~~ Taught voc. ag. in Ia. In teacher training and teaching technical ag. in colleges since 1928, including Michigan State College, since 1937. His research and writings ~~have in voc. ag.~~ have ~~now~~ put major emphasis on evaluation and methods of instruction. Author and co-author of several unpublished forms for evaluating teacher ed. A very active member of a group of leaders in voc. ag. in Michigan, a group that has made outstanding contributions in recent years. Not only has he become a strong teacher and research man, but also he has assisted many teachers in service to improve their local programs. Author of books, bulletins, and numerous professional articles, including: "Getting Acquainted with Agriculture" (co-author), 1941; standardized "Tests for Understandings and Problem-Solving Ability in Animal Husbandry," 1937 and 1939; and "Supervised Farming in Voc. Ag.," 1943. Chairman of National Technical Committee for Evaluation of Voc. Ag. Special editor, Methods Section in mag. Agricultural Education. His influence on voc. ag. ed., always salutary^{and} already national.

-- F. W. Lathrop and R. W. Stinson

Selected by N.E.A. as one of the outstanding professional books of

Deyoe