

..... BRADFORD, Harry E., 1878- Born in Sheboygan, Wis: consin. Boyhood on farm in Nebraska. A.B. and A.M.
 Cut from : from University of Nebraska; Ph.D. from Cornell Uni-favorite : versity. Graduate student at Columbia University.
 photo. : Taught in rural school; Principal of high school;
 : Superintendent of city schools; Principal of University School of Agriculture; Professor of Ag. and Voc. Ed., ~~XXXX~~
 University of Nebraska, and Head of the Dept. of Voc. Ed. since 1922.
 Visiting professor at summer sessions at Cornell University, Kansas State College, and Colorado State College. A strong supporter of the teaching of agriculture in the public secondary schools. A philosopher, writer, and lecturer who advocates sound educational procedures and practices them in his teaching.

-- James H. Pearson and R.W. Stimson

Bradford
 Neb.