

..... BROYLES, William Anderson, 1879 <sup>Farm born</sup> ~~Born in an Indiana, farm~~
 Cut ~~family.~~ Tri-State Coll., Ind., B.S., 1905; Indiana University,
 A.B., 1908; Univ. of Wis., M.A., 1914; Univ. of Ill., Ph. D., 1925. Teacher in Indiana schools 1900-<sup>1910</sup>~~10~~; in State Norm. and Ind. School,
 N. Dak., 1910-<sup>1913</sup>~~13~~; prin<sup>1913</sup>. Park River Ag<sup>1913</sup>. Training School, N. Dak., 1913-<sup>1916</sup>~~16~~
 F.F.A. Chapter there now named in his honor. Prof. Ag<sup>1913</sup>. Ed., Texas A. & M., 1916-<sup>1920</sup>~~20~~; Prof. Ag<sup>1920</sup>. Ed. The Penn<sup>Pa.</sup>. State Coll., 1920 <sup>1945</sup>~~---~~ Teacher of
 "Special Methods" ~~and has published a number~~ <sup>Author</sup> of "Workbooks" used widely in Teaching ~~voc. ag.~~ ~~vocational agriculture.~~ Responsible for the development of the "National"
 Scoring system for judging contests. Superintendent of Scoring, National F.F.A.
 Contests at Kansas City 1935-<sup>1941</sup>~~41~~. ~~He is~~ <sup>He is</sup> undaunted by reverses and obstacles. *
 Works faithfully on in a spirit of fair play, loyalty, honesty, and sincerity. *
 The personification of cooperation when defined as "working so that it is easy for others to work with you".

— H. S. Brunner, ~~and~~ H. C. Fetterolf and W. W. Stinson

Pa.

Broyles