

..... BYRAM, Harold Moore, 1902- Brought up on a farm Cut from : near Waverly, Ia. Worked on farms in Bremer and attached : Crawford counties, Ia. Iowa State College B.S., photo. : 1924, and M.S., 1928; Columbia, Ph.D., 1933. In : 1924-1930, taught voc. ag.: 2 years in Northfield,
 : Minn., and 4 years half-time in Kelley, Ia. Organized one of the first adult classes in ag. taught in Ia. In Kelley, supervising teacher for voc. ag. under Dept. Voc.
 Ed. of Iowa State College. Teacher trainer in ag. half-time, 1926-1930, at Kelley; and full-time, 1930-1936, at Ia. St. Col.; then Associate Professor of Education in charge of Ag. Ed., at Michigan State College, 1936- Author of articles in mag. Agricultural Education, also in Occupations, ~~XXXXXXXXXX~~ The Voc. Guidance Mag.; of an Ia. St. Col. bulletin, "Occupations for the Agriculturally Trained," 1926; and of "Out of School Young Men on Farms," a research study published by the Mich. St. B'd of Control for Voc Ed. Editor of mag.
Ag. Ed., 1939-1942; and Editing-Managing Board secretary, 1943- Unusually well grounded in farming, in teaching voc. ag., in voc. guidance, and in general ed. Few young men have accomplished as much for ag. ed. as he. His best years of service lie ahead. -- H. M. Hamlin.

Byram