

..... COOK, Leon Emory, 1883- Born in Greenwood, New York, Cut from : and N.Y. farm reared. Alfred Univ., 1901-1904; Univ. Mich.,
 glossy : Summer, 1904; Cornell Univ., A.B., 1913, B.S. Ag., 1914, print of : M.S. Ag., 1917. Graduate study, Harvard, Summer, 1923;
 favorite : Columbia Univ., Summer, 1924. (No Space) photo. : Vocational guidance and character education among his special studies. Rural one-room school teacher; high school ag. teacher and prin.; Cornell Univ. Rural Ed. Asst.; No. Car.
~~xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx~~ State Col. ag. teacher-trainer, 1917- No. Car. Ag.
Ed. Monthly joint originator and editor, 1919-¹⁹²⁴ Author: "Teaching Voc.
 Ag. in Secondary Schools," and "Teacher of Voc. Ag. and His Work." Contributor to ed. periodicals. Chairman, Committee on Ag. Ed.; and author of No. Car. State Col. "Study of Teacher Ed.," in cooperation with National Study, 1940-Pres. No. Car. Voc. Guidance Assoc., 1931-1932.
 His philosophy markedly influenced by his experience as N.Y. farm opera~~xxxx~~ tor 5 years, in cutlery factory, as department store clerk, and in newspaper reporting; and by his ed. in liberal arts, science, and
 ag. Admirably fitted for constructive and stabilizing ~~xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx~~ ~~xxxxxxxx~~ influence upon both the program and prospective teachers. Has taught and exemplified personal and professional integrity. Cooperative.
 Loyal. Known and respected beyond his State borders.
 -- J. G. Coggin, Chairman Honor Roll Committee, No. Car. State College.

No. Car.

Cook, L. E.