

DAVIS

Charles Lewis ~~Davis~~, 1885, ^{-B} born and reared on farm near Smyrna, Tenn. x

B.S.A., 1905, Univ. of Tenn. ~~1908-1910~~

Taught agriculture in District ^{Ag.} School in Georgia, ¹⁹⁰⁵⁻¹⁹¹⁰ ~~1910-1919~~, Mead

Dept. Biology and Agriculture, N.T.S.T.C., ~~1910-1919~~

^{1910-1919.}

Denton, ~~1919-1933~~ Asst. and Director of Agri. Ed., State Dept.

of Ed., Austin, Tex., ^{1919-1933.} Since 1933, ~~Davis~~ has continued his efforts to improve the farmers' situation through ^{buying grain and} successfully managing Home Mixed Feed Co., in Austin, ~~and buying grain.~~

During ^{his} ~~Davis~~ tenure as state director of Vocational Agricultural Ed., the ^{centers} ~~schools~~ offering vocational agriculture ~~in~~

~~their curriculum~~ increased from 30 schools with 470 individuals in 1919 to 380 schools and 18,524 individuals ^{in 1933.} ~~Mr.~~

^{The} ~~Davis~~ was ~~directly~~ ^{also} responsible for the following bulletins:

- "Project Study Outlines", 1920; "Vocational Agriculture in Texas", 1923; "Agriculture Evening Schools", 1925; "Judging Contests", 1928, "Vocational Education in Agriculture, ^{Booth} +Instructional ~~Both~~, 1929."

His pioneering results were so outstanding and widely known that he merits a place on this Honor Roll — J. B. RUTLAND, State Supervisor ^{and C. H. Lane}

Davis, C. L.

