

..... FETTEROLF, Howard Cleveland, 1887 -- Pa. born. Owner and
. manager 160 A. farm. The Pa. State Coll. B.S., 1925; M.S., 1927.
. A Pa. school teacher and administrator, 1908. Director first
. rural community voc. school at Elders Ridge three years before . 1917. Smith-Hughes Act. Pa. State Supervisor of Voc. Ed. in Ag.,
..... 1914. Helped to originate the program and assisted in writing Pa. Voc. Ed. Law. Pioneered and promoted demonstration and project contests.
Developed Pa. system of voc. ag. judging contests. Advanced Pa. county supervisory system, decentralizing adm. of voc. ag. and providing close supervision of work in all counties. Member of Pa. Farm Show Commission, 1926-1940; instigated and expanded youth and educational features of the Farm Show Program.
Member of National F.F.A. Advisory Council, 1939-1942. Robust in mind and body.
Professionally alert and enterprising. Of sterling character and genial personality. A leader who inspires and justifies confidence. Loved by teachers and pupils. His vision and strong executive ability have made agricultural education in Pennsylvania a great and well-organized service to the people.
His broadly based judgment is sought, respected, and used by his co-workers, throughout the State and the Nation. -- H. S. Brunner and R. W. Stimson

Vice-President for Ag. Ed. and member Executive Committee, Am. Voc. Assoc., 1946-

Pa.

Fetterolf