

..... GENTRY, Charles Burt, 1884- In teens, after father's Cut from : death, carried on 200-acre corn-belt farm; and ^{has} continued glossy : with mgt. policy, 1905- Warrensburg (Mo.) Normal School print of :
 favorite :
 photo. :
 grad., 1908, A.B., 1911; Univ. Chicago, S.B.Ed., 1912;
 Cornell Univ., M.S. Ag., 1919. Further study: Univ. Mo., 1909-1910;
 Columbia, Teachers College, 1919-1920; and 1927-1928; Harvard Grad.
 School Ed., 1936. Taught ag. and conducted school farms in Arkansas
 St. Normal School, 1912-1914; and in Springfield (Mo.) St. Teachers College, 1914-1918. Dean of Teacher-Training and St. Sup. Ag. Ed. in Conn., 1920-1931; Dean Univ. Conn. and Teacher-Trainer, 1931- Over 30 years a rural school, high school, and college teacher. On distinguished A.V.A. Objectives Committee, 1929. Author; articles mostly on ag. ed. and natural sciences. Pioneered in applying and appraising Allen type of "job analysis" in ag. ed.; and published method. In demand, coast to coast, Univ. Cal. to Univ. N.H., 11 years ^{in period} 1920-1941, for teaching in summer schools. His genius for administration ^{is} attested by his selection 3 times since 1928 to be Univ. Conn. Acting President. Always known for his high standards, modesty, and unflinching courtesy. As a widely sought consultant nearly 25 years, his influence on ed. in voc. ag. has been profound. -- Walter Stemmons, Univ.
 Conn. Editor, and Rufus W. Stimson.

Gentry, C. B.

L. S. GEORGE
WILLIMAN