

..... GETMAN, Arthur Kendall, 1887- New York born. Cornell
 : Univ., B.S., 1911. Post-grad. study, summers: Columbia
 : Univ., 1918; Harvard, 1921. Alfred Univ., hon. D.Sc., CUT : 1934. In N.J.: Prof. Ag. Ed., Rutgers Univ., 1917-1919.
 : In N.Y.: Cortland St. Normal Sch., Head Dept. Ag. Teacher
 : Training, 1911-1915; St. Ed. Dept., Specialist in Ag. Ed.
 1915-1917, and Chief Ag. Ed. Bureau, 1919- College lecturer summers in 22 States. Author: "Future Farmers in Action," 1929.

 Co-author: "The Home Project in Ag. Ed.," 1912; "Teaching Ag. Vocations," 1927; "The Young Man in Farming," 1933. Editor, Professional section, mag. Agricultural Education, 1930-1942. Co-editor: Wiley "Books on Ed."
 series, 2 professional texts; and "Wiley Farm Series," ~~xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx~~ ~~xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx~~ 24 school and college technical texts, 1918- American Voc. Assoc.: V.P. for ag., 1930-1936; Pres., 1936-1938; Ch. Research Com., 1938- In War work, ~~XXXXXXXXXX~~: on State War Finance Committee, ~~and~~ State War Salvage Committee, ~~State Training Council~~, Committee on Rural Ed., State Conference Board of Farm Organizations; on U.S.D.A. War Board; and on War Manpower Commission. In recognition of his "qualities of mind and heart" and of his "achievements and services" when welcoming him as an honorary alumnus of Alfred University, President Davis warmly greeted him thus: "Son of Cornell, Scientist, educator, agricultural expert, skilled organizer and promoter of education, religious education and character building....." Enterprising. Versatile. Untiring.
 Ardent. Magnetic. To education for hopeful careers on the land, a pioneering contributor of nationally recognized distinction.

-- R. W. Stimson.

Set in smaller Type.

Getman

ARTHUR KENDALL GETMAN