

..... GREGORY, Raymond William, 1893- Purdue Univ., B.S.A.,
 :
 CUT : 1918; Cornell Univ., M.S., 1924, and Ph.D., 1937. Born
 :
 : of farm parents in Indiana. Commercial orchardist and
 :
 farmer, 1919- Taught voc. ag. in Ind., 1919-1923. Asst.
 in rural ed. at Cornell, 1923-1924. Taught ag. ed. at Purdue and Asst.
 State Sup. ag. ed. in Indiana, 1924-1936; also special lecturer and teacher at university summer schools. ~~Specialist in Ag. Ed. for out-of-school youth, 1936-1941; and Asst. Director, Rural War Production Training, 1941- N.E.A. member. Long in important A.V.A. committee service. Ag. editor for F.A. Davis Pub. Co., 1933-1935; and for J.B. Lippincott Pub Co., 1936- Ed. of ^{original} A.V.A. Journal, 1928-1932. One of organizers and on ed. managing board of mag. Agricultural Education, since 1929; and, with A.K. Getman and S.S. Sutherland, ed. of the professional section, 1936- Other special editorial services. An able, congenial, and effective leader, ~~clear-cut in philosophy and practice, influential with his colleagues, industrious to the limit, and devoted to the best interests of education in vocational agriculture.~~ clear-cut in philosophy and practice, influential with his colleagues, industrious to the limit, and devoted to the best interests of education in vocational agriculture. -- R. M. Stewart.~~

*Copies sent St. + Gs.
 for correction or o.k.
 Sept. 8*

Gregory

