

..... HAMMONDS, Carsie, 1894- Born in Kentucky, of Scotch-Cut from : Irish descent. B.S. in Ag., M.A., and Ph.D. Alumnus glossy : of University of Kentucky, Peabody College, Ohio State print of : University, and Cornell University. Student of the favorite : learning process and of methods of teaching. As teacher photo. : in the grades in 1913, much interested in what was then known as "nature study." As teacher of voc. ag., had adult-farmer courses in 1920 and young-farmer courses in 1923. As high-school principal, organized his school on the 6-6 basis in 1922.
 Co-author of several ag. books on high-school level. On national ~~RESEARCH~~ research committee for voc. ag., also committee on objectives. In teacher education in ag. at University of Kentucky since 1924. Editor of Agricultural Education Magazine, 1932-1935. Philosopher and student extraordinary, he does not stop with theory but trains men for real jobs. -- N. E. Fitzgerald.

Ry

Hammonds