

..... HAWKINS, Layton S., 1877- Teacher and educational
 :
 : administrator. A key figure in early vocational CUT :
 : agricultural education. Farm reared and educated.
 :
 : Graduate of State Normal School, Cortland, N.Y.

 Alumnus of Amherst College and Cornell University. Specialist in Agricultural Education, New York State Department of Education, 1912-1917, Asst. Director for Ag. Ed., Federal Board for Voc. Ed., 1917-1918, ^{Chief Div. V.E., 1918-1921.} Director of Voc. Training for War Production Workers, U. S. Office of Education, 1941-1946. Chief, Trade and Industrial Education, U. S. Office of Education, 1939-1941, ^{and 1946-} Author of informative and inspirational bulletins and reports in New York; and of tration,
 "Agricultural Education, Organization and adminis-Federal Board Bulletin No. 13,/-- probably the most potent single influence on the character of secondary vocational agricultural education nationwide during the first ^{decades} ~~25 years~~ of operations under the Smith-Hughes Act. Outstanding exponent of the "School and Home Farm Cooperation" philosophy. Inspired the beginning of agricultural teacher-training at Cornell, and the selecting of Georga A. Works to start it. Never devious. Forthright expediter of direct education for salubary agricultural careers. Invaluable adviser, ~~to the examiners~~ ~~1939-1941~~, to the compilers of the U. S. Office of Education "History of Agricultural Education of Less Than College Grade in the United States."
 -- R. W. Stimson.

Dear Mr. Hawkins: Box 35, Wellfleet, Mass. 31 October 1946.
 Will you look the above copy of your record and citation as they now stand on the ms. of our HONOR ROLL over critically, fill the gaps, and make any needed corrections?
 Our first drafts did not seem to me to do you justice. Hence this revision for your examination and possible O.K.
 I have your picture for the cut.
 Sincerely yours,

Rufus W. Stimson.

Hawkins

