

HAYES,

[^] Martin Luther, ~~Hayes~~, 1877-1923. Born and reared on a farm near Marshall, Missouri. Educated in rural elementary schools and the Marshall High School. Received B.A. Degree from Missouri Valley College, 1903; B.S.A. and M.A. from the University of Missouri, 1913.

~~Married Miss Maybell Wallin June 3, 1908 at Green Ridge, Mo. 1903-1913~~

cut Taught in Missouri secondary schools and principal of Slater, Mo. High school, ^{1903-1913; and} ~~1913-14~~ ^{1913-1914.} ~~taught in University of Missouri, 1914-1923~~ Director of Agricultural ^{1914-1923; and} ~~Education at Texas A. & M. College,~~ He established the department of teacher training for the preparation of teachers of Vocational Agriculture at ~~A. & M. College~~ in 1917. He was a member of the National Society for Vocational Education. His outstanding contribution was in the development and growth of youth. Most of the time during his life was devoted to leadership in education, religion, and recreational activities with the youth of the community and state in which he worked.

*A pioneer of memorable influence.
- J. B. Rutland and J. D. Blackwell.*

Texas
Hayes, M. L.

