

..... HEIM, Raymond Walter, 1886- From a thrifty and substantial Central Pa. farm family. Pa. State College, B.S., 1913; Cornell Univ., ~~1914~~ 1918; Columbia Univ.,
 Cut : A.M., 1921; Rutgers Univ., ~~1922~~ 1934. Teacher of rural schools in Pa., 1905-1909. Supervisor voc. ed., Waterford Acad., Pa., 1913-1915. Pa. state supervisor, 1915-1917. Federal Bd. Voc. Ed., Washington, D.C., agent for No. Atlantic Region, 1917-1919. Univ. of Del., professor of voc. ed., 1919-Delaware State Dept. Pub. Instruction; State supervisor of ag. ed., 1923-1931; State director voc. ed., 1919-Dover, Del., State admin. world war orphans' ed., 1929- A pioneer in teaching voc. ag. before passage of the Smith Hughes Act. Always has had a wonderful influence on American rural youth, and has inspired many boys to make the most of themselves. An untiring worker. Unselfish. Devoted to public interests. Has an unusual knack of carrying more than his share of the load and being good natured about it. Knows how to live and work with others, a really remarkable tribute to any man. -- L. H. Dennis.

Heim Del.

