

1944.

..... HOLLOWAY, Keith Leaming, 1890-^ Born in Fort Smith,
 : Arkansas. Father a school man, later a physician. At
 : early age became interested in agriculture, Purdue Univ.
 CUT : student, 1909-1913. Cornell Univ.: General Education Board
 : Scholarship student, 1926-1927; Ph. D., 1932. Texas, science
 : teacher, High School, Fort Worth. Arkansas State Teachers College, Head Dept Ag. and manager of school farm, 1914-1923. University of Arkansas, Head Dept. Ag. Ed., 1924-1944 Developed one of first "Off-the-campus" cadet teaching programs in voc. ag. teacher training. Has done much personal work with students, striving to develop professional, aesthetic, and personal ideals to the end that they might become worthier leaders of farm youth. Author with Roy W. Roberts of "THE HOME FARM SERIES of Job Sheets for Pupils in Vocational Agriculture." Member of numerous state and regional committees for the development of increasingly effective vocational agricultural education.

-- Sherman Dickinson.

Ark.

Holloway