

..... JAMES, John Ambrose, 1884- Born in Livingston, Wis.
 : Worked way through high school, Platteville State
 : Teachers College, and University of Wisconsin College CUT : of Agriculture. B.S., 1912. Graduate student at Columbia
 : Univ., Ohio State University, and Univ. Wis. One of : first Wis. high school ag. teachers, 1907-1910. Organized Racine County School of Ag. and Domestic Economy, Rochester, Wis.: operated farm; developed extension program, dairy herd improvement ring, and farm programs with students; graduated the first class; 1912-1914. Asst. Prof. Ag. Ed., Univ Wis.: traveled State in high school ag. interests and had teacher training classes, 1914-1918. World War I., District Supervisor of County Ag. Agents in 14 counties. Chairman Dept. Ag. Ed., 1918- Also Asst. Dean, College of Ag., 1919-1932. Active in Mid-Western Voc. Ed. Assoc.; and its president, 1921-1922. Among first to espouse "Home Project" cause. Attracted summer students, some of whom became state supervisors and teacher trainers in other states. ~~Since 1901, an inspiring teacher in class~~ ~~room and conference.~~ On full-time duty in agricultural teacher training, after part-time duty ~~for~~ 13 years as Assistant Dean, 1932- Since 1901, an inspiring teacher in class room and conference. -- A. M. Field and R. W. Stimson.

James, J.A. Wis.