

..... LADD, Carl Edwin, 1888-1943. Born on ancestral ~~XXXXXX~~ farm, McLean, N. Y.
 Cut from : ~~XXXXXX~~ At Cortland State Normal glossy print School, 1903-1907. Taught school at ~~XXXXXX~~ Otselic. Cornell of : Univ.: B.S.A., 1912; Ph.D., 1915; Farm Mgt. Instr., 1912-favorite : 1915. Director of State Ag. Schools at Delhi and Alfred; photo. : Specialist 2 yrs., N.Y. State Ed. Dept., 1915-1920. Cornell Univ.: First Extension Prof. in Farm Mgt., 1920-1924; Extension Director, 1924-1932; Dean, N.Y. State Colleges of Ag. and Home
 Econ., and Director N.Y. Ag. Exp. Stations at Geneva and Cornell, 1932-1943. Director, Fed. Land Bank, Spfg., Mass. Member: American Farm Econ.
 Assoc., and international Ag. Econ. Conf. Chairman: N.Y. Milk Supply Stabilization Committee, 1929-1930. As Secretary of Gov. F. D. Roosevelt's Ag. Advisory Commission, made close study of public problems in ag., notably taxation and land use. Member: N.Y. War Council, and N.Y.
 Emergency Food Commission. Author: "Dairy Farming Projects," 1923, Macmillan; and many bulletins and articles. Co-Author with E. R. Eastman: ~~"Horse and Growing Up in Horse"~~ "Growing Up in the Horse and Buggy Days," 1943, Nesterman Pub. Co. Co-Editor with A. K. Getman: "Farm Series," and "Books on Education," Wiley. Faithful and assiduous public servant. Able and eager in aiding all concerned with rural progress.
 For insight into his philosophy of farm life and labor, see above, p.

A good farmer and a good neighbor.

-- S. Newton Stimson (Classmate), R.M. Stewart, and R.W. Stimson.

N.Y.

Ladd, C.E.