 School, San Luis Obispo, 1937-1938; Regional Supervisor and Asst.
 Teacher Trainer, Bureau of Ag. Ed., State Dept. Ed., 1938-1942; Coordinator, Bureau of Ag. Ed., 1942-1944; ~~State~~ State Supervisor Ag. Ed., 1944- President Nebraska Ag. Teachers' Assoc., 1924-1925, and President California Ag. Teachers' Assoc., 1932-1933. Seemingly unbounded and untiring in energy. A real inspiration to fellow teachers and administrators. His enthusiasm always to do a job in the most effective manner has stimulated and encouraged his associates and others to be satisfied only when going their best. All this has aided in developing the sound program of agricultural education in California, and has made him a power for good in his Pacific Coast Region. -- E. J. Johnson.
