

MORGAN, Ralph Lester, 1892 - Of Nebraska farmer parentage. Farm experience in youth in Nebraska and Oregon, ^{including 15} ~~Fifteen months farm exper-~~ ~~ience~~ Oregon State College Farm. ~~Graduate~~ Oregon State College, B.S., 1920; M.A. Equivalent, 1936. Army Air Service, World War I, 1917 - 1919, England and France. ^{In Oregon:} Organized and taught vocational ~~agriculture~~ ^{voc. ag. in} six high schools ~~in Oregon~~ as follows: Union, 1920-23; Imbler, 1923-24; Grants Pass, 1924-25; Imbler school administrator and ~~agricultural instructor~~ ^{ag. instr.} 1925-29; Cloverdale, 1929-31; Albany, 1931-34; Salem, 1934-37; ^{Asst.} Assistant State

Supervisor of ~~Agricultural Education~~ ^{Ag. Ed.}, Oregon, 1937-45; State Supervisor of ~~Agricultural Education~~ ^{Ag. Ed.}, 1946 - Taught courses in agricultural education four summer sessions, Oregon State College. Editor, "Oregon Future Farmer" 1938-45; ^{and} Bulletins: "Organization and Teaching of Farm Mechanics," 1938, ^{and} Revised 1945; "Guide Course of Study for Vocational Agricultural Education," 1941; "Study of Eugene Oregon Area to Determine the Advisability of Establishing a Vocational School," 1939. ~~Mr. Morgan's principle is~~ ^{es} Believing ~~that the~~ rendering ~~of~~ useful service is the common duty of mankind. ~~In his work~~ ^{His work,} ~~has proven to be~~ an example in this respect, ~~This~~ has inspired his co-workers.

His vocational agricultural units and F.F.A. organization work have had great influence for the betterment of agriculture in the Pacific Region. -- E. J. Johnson.

Oregon
Morgan, R. L.