

..... MOWLDS, William Lyle, 1899- Of Pa. parentage. Father,
 : civil engineer; Mother, teacher. Univ. Del., B.S., 1922.
 : Adv. study, Summers; Johns Hopkins, 1929; Cornell, 1930, CUT : 1931. Md. and Del.: voc. ag. instr., 1922-1931. Del.:
 : St. Sup. Ag. Ed., 1931-1940; St. Adviser, Future Farmers
 :: of America, 1931-1940. Organized Del. Branch, New Farmers
 ..... of America (Negro). At State Fair, conducted annual F.F.A. and N.F.A. exhibits. Teams won many places at National F.F.A. Judging Contests. Featured Summer out-of-the-State trips for recreation, and to study, on-the-spot, outstanding ed. in voc. ag. methods and results, climaxed by follow-up discussions as aids to learning. E.g.: long-time planning and continuing projects of boys and adults studied in and around Shelburne Falls, Mass., followed up by bringing Ag. Instr. John G.
 Glavin before Ag. Teacher-Training Conferences in Del. and Philadelphia, Pa., to expound further the supervised farming philosophy just seen in action. On National Ag. Committee for Kiwanis International, 1936. In World War I.; also in Del. Nat. Guard, 1935-1939. 1st Lieut., Milford Battery. Capt., 1939-1940. Called into World War II.: In Coast Artillery; then, in Corp of Military Police, ~~1940~~ - Promoted to Major and made Provost Marshall of an Infantry Division, <sup>1943</sup> Cooperative. Loyal. Since 1922, an inspiring Instructor, Supervisor, <sup>1943</sup> Adviser, and Patriot.

--- R. W. Helm and R. W. Stimson.

1940-1946. Returned to duty as State Supervisor, 1946-

Del.

Mowlds