

NAUGHER, R. E., 1900- Lived on a farm with parents in Pontotoc County, Mississippi until he graduated from Mississippi State College in 1924. Now owns a farm in Horry County, South Carolina. Attended summer sessions Clemson College, Louisiana State University. Taught agriculture Loris, South Carolina 1924-30; teacher of agriculture and county supervisor 1930-31; district supervisor vocational agriculture, South Carolina, 1931-43. Specialist in agricultural education, U. S. Office of Education, 1943- . Interested in all phases of vocational agriculture but particularly in programs of instruction for farm families in community services and facilities, organization of local buying and selling cooperative units, and in district F.F.A. camps. -- D. M. Clements.

*Naugher, R. E.
U. S. Office of Ed.*