

..... OLNEY, Roy A., 1891- Born in Monroe Co., N. Y., of : farmer forbears. Farm experience in youth. Cornell CUT : Univ., B.S., 1915; Ph.D., 1929. A pioneer ag. teacher
 :
 5 years in N. Y. high schools. Director of practice
 ag. teaching in Trumansburg High School, 1918-1920, for observation and demonstration purposes, for Cornell, during the organization of teacher education under the National Voc. Ed. Act. Asst. State Supervisor Ag. Ed., ^{N. C.} No. ~~Car.~~, 1920-1923. In teacher education, W. Va., 1923-1938;
 (At Cornell, Head Ag. Ed. in Rural Ed. Dept., 1946-and Cornell Univ., 1938- / Has conducted many studies, including special study of part-time work in Pa. in 1936. Summer School teacher and lecturer in several states, including special ^{Summer School Iowa} work at Ohio State Univ. in Agricultural Education, 1935-1939.
 1938. Editor mag. ~~AGRICULTURAL EDUCATION~~ Modest. Untiring 1915-in the cause of voc. ed. in ag. / Always congenial and helpful in his professional relationships. Always seeking the welfare of his students, and highly regarded by graduates in many states. Concerned always with the welfare of youth on farms, and their establishment in successful agricultural careers. -- R. M. Stewart and R. R. Stimson.

Olney, R. A.