

..... POE, Clarence, 1881- North Carolina born. Farm reared.
 Cut from :
 glossy : Lives on his farm, and applies to it the improved pracprint of : tices he has advocated in person and print. Self-educated favorite : photo. :
 ..... after started by his teacher-mother. World traveler, and student at home and abroad of ag., industry, and ed. Progressive Farmer Publishing Co. established by him in 1903. Circulation in 1903, 5,000; and in 1943, 950,000, with branch offices in Raleigh, Birmingham, Memphis, and Dallas. President and Editor-in- chief. In many progressive groups; including: State Bd. Ag.; Pres. State Farmers' Convention; Executive Com. Conf. Ed. in South; Master No. Car. State Gran-Grange; Pres. Am. Country Life Assoc.; Member and 2 years Chairman, Fed. Bd. Voc. Ed., and still member Advisory Bd. Voc. Ed. of U. S.
 Office of Ed. Author: "How Farmers Cooperate and Double Profits."
 Specially active in aid to cooperative marketing of cotton, tobacco, and peanuts. / Co-author: "Cotton--Its Cultivation." Author and co-author of other books and papers. Advocate of longer / rural school terms. Promoter of Farm Life Schools; also, of voc. ag. and other studies adapted to rural youth. As speaker, writer, editor, and statesman, he has contributed to every constructive movement for the advancement of the rural South.
 -- T. E. Browne.

Poe, Clarence N.C.