

Director of Voc. Ed., Resource-Use Ed., and Ed. for Negroes, Texas State Department of Education, 1945-

RUTLAND, Jesse Blake, 1888- Farm reared and attended the rural and village public schools, Fredonia, Alabama. B.S.A., Alabama Polytechnic Institute, ~~Auburn, Alabama,~~ 1910; M.S.A. Cornell University, ~~Ithaca, New York,~~ 1928; advanced studies at Colorado Agriculture College, ~~Ft. Collins, Colorado,~~ and University of Texas, ~~Austin, Texas.~~ Taught agriculture in rural schools and high schools in Alabama, Georgia, Louisiana and Texas. Also taught in University of Florida, Texas Agricultural and Mechanical College, and Texas College of Arts and Industry, ~~Kingsville,~~ 1911-1920. Assistant supervisor and supervisor of agricultural education in Texas from 1920-1945. ~~Mr. Rutland~~ has written quite a number of handbooks that have greatly aided in developing the vocational agriculture departments throughout the State. His work as State adviser of the Future Farmers of America has been outstanding and resulted in Texas winning the National State F.F.A. Association Award in 1939. ~~Mr. Rutland~~ holds the distinction of having the longest continuous service on the State agricultural education supervisory staff in the State of Texas. In performing his duties ~~As State supervisor~~ <sup>he</sup> ~~of~~ <sup>of</sup> agricultural education, ~~Mr. Rutland has~~ developed one of the best supervised programs of vocational agriculture in the South. — W.N. Elam.

Texas

Rutland, J.B.