

..... SCHOPMEYER, Clifford H., 1882-1931. Indiana farm reared.
 : Valparaiso Univ., B.A., 1904; Purdue Univ., B.S., 1910;
 : Univ. Maryland, M.S., 1922. Indiana public school teacher CUT : 3 years. Maryland, Illinois, and Minnesota high school
 : ag. teacher, 1910-1917. Appraised lands in Minn. and the
 : Dakotas, for Farm Land Bank of St. Paul, 1917-1918. U.S.
 ..... D.A., Senior Agriculturist, Office of Instruction and Cooperative Extension Work, 1919-1931. By 1920, unit course and job plan methods of teaching vocational agriculture had come into use Nationwide. Between 1920 and 1923, cooperating on the part of the ~~XXXXXX~~ U.S.D.A., Mr. Schopmeyer prepared for publication by the Federal Board for Vocational Education: Bul. 63, "A Unit Course in Poultry Husbandry;" Bul. 68, "A Unit Course in Swine Husbandry;" Bul. 74, "Analyzing a Potato Enterprise;" Bul. 75, "Analyzing a Poultry Enterprise;" and ~~XXXXXX~~ Bul. 88, "Analysis of the Management of a Farm Business." Also, between 1925 and 1927, he aided Federal Agent A. P. Williams of the Federal Board for Vocational Education in preparing for publication three more enterprise analyses: Bul. 101 and Bul. 118 analyzed jobs in corn growing; and the third, in cotton growing. He thus became a National, teamwork, figure, -- competent, admired, respected; and as such, he will be gratefully remembered. -- E. H. Shinn and R. W. Stimson.

C. H. Schopmeyer