

..... STEWART, Wilbur Filson, 1885- An Illinois farm boy.
 Picture on : Educated in a one-room school; in a private academy;
 p. :
 Articles on: at Milton College, Wis., A.B., 1909; at Univ. of Wis.,
 pp. :
 M.A., 1914; and Columbia Univ., Ph.D., 1931. A rural school teacher; a high school teacher of science, and of voc. ag.;
 a high school principal, and a superintendent. Professor of Ag. Ed.,
 Ohio State University, 1917- Organized Dept of Ag. Ed. at Ohio State Univ. Served jointly as ag. teacher-trainer and State supervisor until 1921. His teacher-training included directed student teaching in five training schools. Highly capable bus. mgr. of mag. Agricultural Education, 1931-1943; and elected Editor, Dec., 1943-/ Author of widely used "Helps in Mastering Parliamentary Procedure." Vice-President, A.V.A., for part-time ed., 1942. Best known/^{for his}fidelity to voluntary duty, for his philosophy, and for his ag.
 ed. leadership; also, for his contributions to ag. teacher-training, and particularly for the applications of his philosophy in practical methods of education in vocational agriculture.

-- Ray Fife and R. W. Stimson.

Ohio
 Stewart, W. F.