

1948.

..... WARE, Charlotte Barrell, 1868-^ Mass. born and educated.
 Cut from ; Boston Univ., A.B., 1885; D. Humanities (hon.), 1937. glossy ; Married Robert Allison Ware, 1895. He had inherited print from : part of ancestral acres and the "new house" built in favorite : 1679~~7~~; and she had as a wedding gift a St. Lambert strain photo. : Jersey heifer calf. In Paris in 1904, she was served ..... milk in an individual bottle. This reopened an old diseas cussion, which he ended thus: "You've always wanted to be a farmer.
 Why not begin now?" Warelands, at Highland Lake, Norfolk, Mass., soon became internationally famous, 1909-1913, as the seat of Warelands Dairy School, organized, directed, and supported by her, to train women for dairying, and to protect the public, particularly children, against dirty and disease carrying milk; at a crisis when typhoid epidemics had become rampant. ~~Caught~~ Had caught the land-grant college spirit during family visits at the Vermont end Washington, D.C., homes of Senator Justin S. Morrill. Ardent supporter of the Theodore Roosevelt "Country Life Commission." A pioneer promoter of school and home gardening. With Mrs. Charles Sumner Bird, called the first meeting which led to the establishment of Norfolk County Agricultural School with its ~~ix~~ vocational education and extension service teamwork program, 1916- Chairman, International Cooperation Committee, Woman's National Farm and Garden Association. Trustee, Albanian-American School of Ag., Kavege, Albania, a Near East Foundation affiliate.
 Sent by U.S.D.A. Sec. Ag., H. C. Wallace, on "Special Mission" to International Inst. Ag., Rome, 1922. Received Belgian medals for humanitarian service through "clean milk;" and Mass. Dept. Ag. gold medal, 1929, with a citation titled: "A Pioneer Who Has Blazed Many An Agricultural Trail." Distinguished. Gracious. Unstinting in her public service to education for superior farming careers. -- R. W. Stimson.

Set in Smaller
Type

Mass.

Ware,
Charlotte Barrell

