

..... WATTS, Ralph L., 1869 - Born and reared on a Pa. farm. The Cut : Pa. State Coll., B.Agr., 1890; M.S., 1898; Syracuse Univ., D.
: Sc., 1931. Assoc. Prof. bot. and hort., Tenn. Exp. Sta., 1890-<sup>1899</sup>;
lect. farmer's insts., 1899-1908; commercial hort., Johnstown, Pa., 1900-<sup>1908</sup>;
prof. hort., Pa. State Coll., 1908-<sup>1912</sup>; dean and dir. Sch. Agr. and Exp. Sta., 1912-1939; Dean Emeritus 1939 -- . ~~A consistent supporter of education for agricultural careers.~~

Author: "Vegetable Gardening", 1912 (revised 1922), a text widely used in
voc. agr.; "Vegetable Forcing", a college text; "Vegetable Growing Projects"
(the Stimson series); with son Gilbert S. as co-author, "The Vegetable Growing Business", 1939.

Now conducting Wild Life Research, which continues life long hobby and love of the outdoors. Widely known as a fisherman and woodsman. Most Recent publication, Pa. Exp. Sta. Bul. #437, "Brook Trout in Kettle Creek and Tributaries". A consistent supporter of American Assoc. for the Advancement of Ag. ~~Teaching~~ Teaching and of education for agricultural ~~careers~~ ~~careers~~. ~~careers~~
A first ranking citizen in education, agriculture, <sup>and</sup> home and community life; and in every constructive endeavor promising joy and happiness to rural people.
Ever conscious of the privilege and responsibility of molding and fashioning men.
An active Church man, he reflects in his professional as well as his personal life a profound and sincere concern with the right, -- a man who has learned to walk, and talk, with God. -- H. S. Brunner and ~~(R.W.S.)~~ R. W. Stimson

Pa.
Watts