

..... WOODS, Ralph H., 1898- Product of southern Virginia.
: Son of practical, progressive farmer. Reared in an at: mosphere of industry and ambition. Holder of degrees
CUT : from Berea College, University of Kentucky, and Cornell.
: Cornell University, Ph.D., 1930. Teacher of agriculture.
: High school principal. Teacher trainer in agriculture
..... and professor of education, nine years. State Director of Vocational Education in Kentucky, 1936- Author of numerous articles and publications. Co-author of text-books in elementary agriculture and farm management. Noted for his driving force, untiring energy, and devotion to duty; and for his lasting loyalty to them, loved by his fellow workers. Member of summer session faculties in other states.
Nationally known speaker. Member of the White House Conference on Children in a Democracy, and other advisory commissions and councils.
American Vocational Association, Vice President, President, and life member. In national education and vocational affairs, a recognized leader. -- Watson Armstrong, Ag. Ed. Teacher Trainer, Univ. Ky., and Sherman Dickinson.

Woods, R. H. Ky.